Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Assalaam-o-Alaikum Wa Rakhmatullahi Wa Barakaato Hoo.

Eid ul Fitr Mubarak.

I pray to Allah Almighty to make this Eid ul Fitr blessed, full of happiness for all Jama'ats in Pakistan, and worldwide. Eid-ul-Fitr is a momentous day in the lives of all Muslims. It celebrates the completion of a month spent in special devotion to Allah Ta'ala. A refresher course that prepares us for the way to lead our lives for the rest of the year. We should try our best to protect ourselves against the devil and put into practice the teachings of the Holy Qur'an, which is the guiding force in our lives. Ramadan has helped us to get closer to Allah Almighty. In this month, Allah Ta'ala gives His servants the opportunity to gain strength in fighting against the elements that mislead their souls. Through fasting and prayers in this holy month, we have gained closeness and friendship with Allah. Ramadan gives man steadfastness and patience. Having achieved these objectives, we should endeavor to continue this jihad throughout our lives to guard our souls against the attacks of the slinking devil. May Allah Ta'ala grant us the true spirit of Eid which means a recurring happiness.

I wish you all a very happy Eid ul Fitm May each moment of this joyous time be filled with love and peace for our Jama'at.

Aameen summa aameen.
